CONDITIONS GENERALLY SATISFACTORY BUT ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT-NO SENSATIONAL SCENE AT BRECKINRIDGE'S HEAD

QUARTERS Washington, Sept. 28 - Secretary Alger returned to Washington this morning and came War Department immediately after CUBA'S FUTURE A HARD PROBLEM. breakfast. He was soon besieged by a number of persons who have been waiting for him The Secretary looked much improved by his trip, although it was filled with hard work after he left Detroit. He said that he had gained a the camps and hospitals, which might take official action soon. The Secretary lest no time in visiting the White House, and for two hours and a half he was occupied in ommunicating his observations to the Presidont Secretary Long came over from the Navy Department with a friend and joined the party said he was much gratified with the condition of the camps generally. He refrained from specifically charging exaggeration of the hardships trip of inspection were satisfactory. He had visited every one of the camps, the hospitals and the sick. He was especially gratified to and the men in the hospitals steadily improv adies had been great. Most of the men in the hospitals were in good spirits, cheerful and happy, and brightly looking forward to the time when they would be well again.

In a general way the camps were kept satisfactorily but there were he conceded numer especially the unsatisfactory condition of the sinks at some places. At Jacksonville the reports seemed to show a fairly large proportion of sick, but the percentage of sickness was accounted for by the fact that the sick of all the regiments departing and mustered out were kept in the camp.

"The main trouble," said the Secretary. which I found , was, perhaps, the matter of troops taking care of themselves. This was one of the great difficulties encountered. At some points the eating tents outside the campa conducted by private enterprise proved too tempting for soldiers, and the results of improper and injudicious taking of food soon manifested themselves in the general condition of the men. These are things which sometimes be helped, and where there was a most rigid discipline along these lines the improved state of affairs was very evident."

The Secretary said that the reforms or changes which might result from his inspection would be discussed later, but he made no more detailed observations regarding his trip Secretary Alger says that the report of a scene in General Breckingidge's headquarters at Lexington when he was inspecting that camp is absolutely without foundation. There was no scene, no high words and no excited was no scene, no high words and no excitoral language. He says the story was made out of whole cloth Secretary Alger and Generals Ludington and Sternberg have letters from General Wiley, who was reported as having made charges against them, expressing his regret that the report was circulated. My Dear General Alger, I hear that some of the Sorthern papers are making a great display of seadlines showing how I pitched into Generals alger, Ludington and Sternberg at General Breck, nridge's headquarters on the 20th inst. 'how I alled you down,' etc. etc.—a lot of untruthfol rash. Every word I said was directed to you sersonally, and we were within four or five fees of each other, and you no doubt heard every word it. INVESTIGATING COMMISSION'S MEETING

Washington, Sept 28 -Only four members of the Commission appointed to investigate the conduct to the Secretary of War and his subordinates, little business was transacted. Colonel Denby was clotted vice-chairman, and in the absence of General Dodge presided over to-day's session. The only important matter brought to the attention of the Commission was a report by General Wilson, the Chief of Engineers. No statement was called for from him, because there were no charges to says a RED CROSS OFFICIAL WHO HAD TO against his department, but General Wilson, being a member of the Commission, decided that to furnish one would be an appropriate proceeding. The document was held for disposition by the full Commission and consequently was not made public inates throughout the country, just before the heginning of the wat, advising them of the prospect of hostilities, and giving directions as to what ourse they should pursue as members of the

I have brought back with me on this steamer a wagon load of medi-cine which we sent down on the English steamer Kennett. The Spaniards wanted me to pay $1.00 taking their time about leaving cubs, and all the while they are making money from duties. He has suffered severely from his prison experience, and had to be carried off the steamer when she arrived here.

It is expected that the evacuation of the island will be completed shortly.

The Americans have here eight batteries of light artillery which are useless, as an effective force of cavalry and infantry alone is needed for policing the island and the maintenance of the artillery is expensive.

Twenty-five per cent of the American troops in the island are on the sick list, and it is impossible for them to recuperate here.

The townspeople have requested that, as the evacuation proceeds, the American troops shall take possession before the Spanish soldiers have departed, thus affording the inhabitants protection in case of possible disorder.
